Bombay, India, June 17, 1909.

Mr. J. P. Shannon,

Purcellville, Va. Dear Sir: Please send the particulars about any bargains you have in Virginia farms up to 200 acres or so, as advertised in The Washington Herald.

I am not particular about them being near Washington, but would prefer some land near Charlottesville or Staunton. State fully what are the terms.

Also if you have any one who would like to trade for an improved farm in Ohio. I enclose one dollar for postage. I am in no hurry about buying, so can wait for a Yours, Sincerely, good bargain.

(Signed) In sending the above letter to The Washington Herald, Mr. Shannon writes: "I have been exceedingly pleased with the results obtained from The Herald. I have only carried a classified ad so far, as, really, the returns from that have been so great that I verily believe if I put a large ad in your paper I would be swamped."
